EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

NEW AND THRILLING BOOK.

The Last Ninety Days of The War

IN NORTH CAROLINA.

BY CORNELIA PHILLIPS SPENCER.

Edited by Rev. Dr. Deems.

A Portion of this Book appeared in numbers of The Watchman, and attracted great attention in this country and Europe.

Re-written, enlarged with many most important additions, these chapters appear in a handsome volume. The very last acts of the war occurred in North Carolina; the writer was in the midst of them. Moreover, she has had access to the private papers of LEADING ACTORS, and to other sources of information.

No war-book which has yet appeared equals this book in fidelity to truth and in graphic and picturesque description. Nowhere else can the important information in this volume be obtained.

It ought to be in the hands of every one who desires to know how the war was really carried on.

It is a handsome 12mo. volume of 288 pages, elegantly printed, and well bound, and sent by mail, pre paid, for $1.50.

The usual deduction to the trade.

AGENTS wanted for this work everywhere and liberal commissions allowed. Apply for circular.

THE LEGISLATURE meets in this City on Monday next, the 19th. inst.

Hard Times for Young Men.

The Petersburg Express announces with astonishment that the 12th U. S. Regiment stationed in that city contains between fifteen and twenty-five young men, belonging to Petersburg, who have been driven to it as a last resort, by stern necessity. The Express calls it "the desperate expedient of selling their bodies, to the army of the country which denies liberty to the land of their nativity." We do not sympathise with that sentiment, and we judge the second sober thought, will lead the Express to correct it.

We deplore the necessity most deeply which would drive our young men into the army, unless imperious circumstances demand it. But the profession of a soldier is not dishonorable, nor is it necessarily demoralizing. Nor do we admit that the U. S. army is the "army of that country which denies liberty to the land of their nativity." Most certainly, the army, the true soldiers of the U. S. army, if their will could be law, would not deny us liberty. Those brave men and those whom they represented, who met at Cleaveland, Ohio, some months ago, do not and would not deny us liberty, however much the Radical Congress and their supporters may. Though the enemies to our liberty, may be strong and may wield and control the legislative functions of the government, we must not forget that we have friends, many friends and strong friends too in "that country" who are battling for our liberty; nor should we forget that the South though down-trodden is still a part of "that country." Moreover, it is not improbable that we may yet owe our liberty and the very existence of the States of the South, to the army which those young men have entered. What there is left us of a constitutional government, may owe its future existence to that very army. There is much meaning and true patriotism in the recent significant letter of Gen. Beauregard, that when he surrendered at the termination of the late war, "I buried the hatchet not to be unburied again, except in defence of the country and its constitutional government." Those young men may have unwittingly placed themselves in that category. Who knows?

But nevertheless, we deeply regret, with the Express, that our young men are reduced to such straits as to compel them before they are imperiously needed to defend the Constitution and the Union, to join the army. Our towns and cities are full of them, without employment. Many of them are reduced to great extremity. Why is this? Is there no work in the South? Is there nothing to be done here, no labor to be performed, nothing to be done to recuperate the country? Why the South is full of work.—There is a call for labor everywhere, and yet many of our young men are idle? "Why stand ye here all the day idle?"

Why is this? Is it not the fault of the past? Is it not because our negroes were here to work, our sons were not taught it? Were they not raised up to feel that it was degrading to work? Why were not our sons taught to become artizans and mechanics? Why were they not taught to till the soil and become skillful farmers? Was it not because we taught them that it was more respectable and honorable and more easy to make a fortune by studying a profession or becoming store and shop-keepers? Hence, now that the war is over, thousands who never learned to work with their hands, are filling the towns and cities, begging for employment in shops and stores, or some easy work which does not require exposure and hardship. "To dig they cannot, to beg they are ashamed," and hence, they are being driven into the army, or to sea, or they sink down into utter hopelessness.

Here is the evil. We taught them it was not respectable to do hard work. But we and they have to come to it. Five times the amount of labor is needed to till the soil of the South, than we have at command. These very young men, intelligent, strong young men—these sons of the South, with education, and raised respectably, would make the best farmers in the world. They are the very men to redeem and disenthral the South. If it is ever done, it must be by the tillers of the soil and by the artizans and mechanics of the South. Instead, therefore, of their rushing to the towns to be clerks or sharp traders, or to get out of the sun into some easy place, and if they fail there, to go into the army or to the sea, for a meagre livelihood, let them rush into the fields, into the workshops, and let them roll up their sleeves and go to work. Work, work will make them healthy and honest, and sober and ultimately rich, and then if the defence of our liberties and our constitutional government calls them to go, let them go and battle for the right.

THE Standard does not see how the threats and menaces of the Radicals, should alarm our laboring white people and induce them to go North where the Radicals are most numerous. None are so blind as those who will not see.—Every school boy knows that the Radical policy cannot affect, and is not designed to affect, injuriously, the Northern States. It is only in the South, that that policy is alarming to laboring white men, where the white population are threatened with negro equality and degradation. The few blacks at the North, can never affect society, except among those who desire admixture and social equality. The object of the Radicals is evidently to put the South under the control of the loyal blacks and the few so called loyal whites; the latter class, however, they could not trust alone. Their loyalty must be backed and purified by the superior loyalty of the loyal blacks. Does the Standard see why decent white men would not wish to stay with such a crowd?

The Situation.

The following extract from the leader of the last Richmond Examiner, so much better expresses our own views than we could ourselves, we cordially commend to the consideration of our readers. True courage and integrity are never firmer in a sound, true man, than when they are tested by the most portentous dangers. Cowards are bold only when there is no danger:

"That man is no true friend, or if true certainly not a wise one of the Southern people, who preaches to them that the situation is not only dismal but the future positively irremediable. That the Radicals have carried the late elections is indeed matter of sincere regret, and we do not question that their triumph may involve serious mischief to the interests of the whole country. But to assume that they are irresistable, and that the only organization which opposes them will now disappear, is to ignore patent facts and pave the way for an unmanly and irrational despondency. The next step in natural order will be for the alarmed prophet of wo, taking counsel of his own fears, to suggest some unworthy compliance in order to escape the evils which terror has thus evoked and magnified. We shall oppose any effort to breed despair among our people. While not disguising or extenuating the troubles now oppressing us or the obvious reasons for apprehension as to the future, we still cherish and shall inculcate an abiding confidence in the power of truth and of time to redress the balance of present injustice. Sore as are our present trials we do not distrust the Providence of God. The people who have borne up so manfully under the sufferings and privations of the late terrible struggle, will not yield themselves to a panic which is hostile alike to industry, material development, the influx and application of capital, and an honorable conduct. The evils which counsels bred of panic have already wrought in our midst are sufficiently visible. It is to such sensational exaggeration and advice that we owe the infinite disgrace of Virginia's last year selecting as her chosen representatives persons who avowed that they never had a solitary sympathy with her in her hour of utmost agony—a concession which time has shown to be uncalled for, and not merely valueless but so mischievous that it is now repudiated even by those who were foremost in making the unworthy suggestion.

It is the part of men not to be affrighted by these phantoms of an unoccupied brain, but resolutely to tread the path of duty God prescribes for each, turning not to the right hand or to the left. If we scan the actual facts, we find much to cheer and comfort us. We have in the Executive chair a statesman who, whatever his errors, has shown that he has the courage to withstand evil, and whose firmness in maintaining his principles, lying rumor and treachorous, timid friends or time serving Southerners no longer have excuse to question. He stands armed with great power, clad with the panoply of the Constitution, a terror and a dread to the Radical party—a bulwark so potent, indeed, that the leaders would fain hurl him from his office, but that they lack the power to do so. The Supreme Court has already made important Conservative decisions, and is daily growing more Conservative under the natural and insensible influence of the judicial office. Here are two potent barriers to Radical violence. The name and prestige of General Grant, once used by the Radicals to strengthen them in their canvass, is withdrawn by his own order from the vile paper on which it was forged, and although he wisely declines interference in politics, the annuciation that recognizes the President as his commander in chief is significant that he will not be inclined to join in any scheme for Mr. Johnston's deposition from power.

The formidable threat of impeachment has been sufficiently before the public to elicit a public judgment, and it is now sufficiently evident that this measure cannot be brought forward by the Radicals without serious division in their ranks, or carried forward to a successful conclusion. Mr. Johnson will continue for two more years to wield the Executive office, and we have all that time for reason and truth to operate on the Northern masses.

Our Railroads Again.

The completion of the Roads already projected in the State, will doubtless be strongly urged upon the attention of the Legislature. The system of internal improvements so auspiciously begun years ago, should be consummated, in order that the full benefits of the system may be enjoyed, and to save what has been expended. This is especially so, in the case of the Western Extension Railroad and the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Road.

The same laudable object is sought to be effected by the people of Fayetteville, in their anxiety to extend the Coal Fields Road from Egypt to some point on the North Carolina Road. The benefits to be derived from that extension, may depend much upon the point of terminus upon the North Carolina Railroad. We are glad to see the interest manifested by the people of Greensboro' and of Caswell upon that subject. We have also heard it said that the people of Salisbury feel some concern upon that point.—That interest indicates a rising spirit of enterprise in the State. But it can hardly be expected that three branches from Egypt can be projected. The friends of that enterprise, ought therefore to look well to the settlement of that question.

North Carolina Conference.

This body closed a most harmonious and interesting session at Fayetteville, on Monday night last. Six days were spent in close attention to business, except the Sabbath, which was delightfully spent in religious services.

Bishop Pierce presided with great satisfaction, and his pulpit exercises were of the highest order.

Besides the usual routine of business, the Conference adopted the change in the name of the Church, "Episcopal Methodist," with only three dissenting votes. The proposition to change the Constitution of the Church so as to admit lay delegates in the annual and General Conferences, was adopted by the vote ayes 49, nays 23.

The Conference resolved to re-build Greensboro' Female College as soon as possible. Twenty thousand dollars have been raised at Greensboro' towards that object, and Rev. Dr. Deems and Rev. A. W. Mangum were appointed Agents to secure the funds. Mr. Mangum is the active Agent in this State.

It was resolved to resume the publication of a Church paper in this city at an early day, to be called the "Carolina Episcopal Methodist," and also to establish a Bookstore in connection therewith.

The objects and aims of Rev. Dr. Deems in his mission work in New York, were highly commended by the Bishop and Rev. Dr. Sehon.

The missionary collections for the year were only about $1,000, and those for the superanuated preachers, exceeded $1,400.

Both preachers and people were highly delighted, and the preachers will not soon forget Fayetteville.

The next Conference will be held at Wilmington.

ROANOKE
LAND FOR SALE.

AS Attorney, I shall sell, on the premises, for Cash, ON THE 26TH. DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1866,

At Public Auction, to the highest bidder, the celebrated plantation of

MR. T. P. BURGWYN, KNOWN AS

ALVESTON, CONTAINING

1,200 Acres, More or Less,

lying in Occoneechie Neck, Northampton county, North Carolina.

This is one of the most beautiful plantations in the whole country, and is surpassed in fertility and productiveness by none in North Carolina. Most of it is high table land, a red soil, cleared and in a high state of cultivation. It is admirably adapted to the production of COTTON, WHEAT, & INDIAN CORN.

It is well stocked with negro laborers, the former slaves of the estate, who are attached to the place, and can be easily induced to remain by a prudent purchaser. It also has on it several very good white tenants,—good and honest farmers—and is in much demand by this class of tenants. The Barns and Laborers' Houses are very good.

THE MANSION HOUSE

is sufficiently good. It is situated on the Roanoke river, below the head of navigation, and in the immediate neighborhood of four railroads leading to Norfolk, Petersburg, Wilmington, and Raleigh.

A plantation of equal value has not been offered for sale in Northampton within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

THE SENTINEL.

Thursday Evening, Nov. 15, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Call at Jno. C. Palmer's and see his new stock just purchased at the North. See advertisement.

Alveston, T. P. Burgwyn's splendid Roanoke Farm, &c., will be offered for sale on the 26th of December. See Mr. Peebles' notice.

Alex. Miller, of Johnston Co., near Clayton, will sell corn, fodder, &c., &c., on the 12th of December. See advertisement.

See Court advertisements for Burke County.

We call attention to important changes in Dr. Miller's advertisement of Land for sale.

THE BABE SLEEPETH.—We deeply sympathize with our excellent associate, Maj. Gales, in the death of his sweet, interesting little girl. It is sad to part with them, but though gone from us, they are safe. See Funeral Notice.

ARTILLERY.—We learn that the Artillery command which has been here since the war closed, will leave this city in a few days. Its reported destination is Hilton Head.

BUILDING.—We are glad to learn that Messrs. Briggs, Dodd and Hicks, Mr. Coates and Mr. Wilson, contractors for building, have a good demand for their services. Let the ball keep rolling. Mechanics make a city, if made at all.

Rev. Bishop Pierce will preach at Henderson, Granville Co., on Sunday next.

Rev. Dr. Deems, will preach on Sunday next at the Methodist Church in this City.

We observed Judge Fowle on the cars this morning on his return from Caswell Court, having completed, we believe, his circuit for this term. He appeared to have recovered from his late attack. Judge F. has been prompt and has ably discharged his office, as may be truthfully said of all the Judges.

Rev. Dr. Skinner returned home this morning from Danville, Va., having been assisting the Pastor of the Baptist Church in that place in an interesting meeting.

RALEIGH AS A COTTON MARKET.—The experience of the last few weeks indicates plainly that Raleigh is to become a permanent cotton market. We have a class of buyers here, that keep the market lively. Several hundred thousand dollars have probably passed hands for cotton in a few weeks.

ABNER S. WILLIAMS, ESQ.—We are glad to announce first on the list, the arrival of our confrere of the Williamston Expositor, the Commoner elect from Martin. He is as bright and cheerful as a lark, and will make a capital member. The people of Martin will not regret having committed their interests to Mr. Williams.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.—The North Carolina Conference of this Church, held its annual session in Alamance County the past week. We met some of the delegates this morning returning, and hope to have the proceedings in a few days.

The Danville Times says that the late Gov. Morehead, of this State, was born in Pittsylvania County, Va., on the 4th day of July, 1796. We had heretofore supposed he was a native of Rockingham Co., N. C.

WILMINGTON JOURNAL.—Our cotemporary comes to us in an enlarged form. We are glad to see this evidence of its prosperity.

The Newbern Commercial gives notice of its intention to enlarge its sheet shortly. Newbern will then have two of the largest daily papers in the State.

TARBORO' SOUTHERNER.—The Wilson North Carolinian announces that the Tarboro' Southerner will be enlarged shortly, and that our friend Hearne, of the Carolinian, has become joint proprietor and will become its Editor.—We most heartily wish the enterprise success. We hope, however, it will in no wise interfere with the success of the Carolinian, whose semi-weekly visits are always pleasant to us.

THE EYE AND EAR.—We refer our readers to the advertisement of Dr. Gardner, Oculist and Aurist, (formerly of London,) now of New York, who will be at the EXCHANGE HOTEL, on Saturday, Nov. 24th., and remain until Thursday, the 29th. After that time, he will visit Raleigh monthly, of which due notice will be given.—The Dr. comes highly recommended by the press of the different cities he has visited. Those who require medical or surgical aid for defective sight or hearing should avail themselves of the opportunity now offered for obtaining relief, by consulting Dr. Gardner.

SOUTHERN DESTITUTION.—In consequence of the failure of crops, a belt of the Southern country, extending from North Carolina to Texas, and embracing the northern and central portions of those States, and also of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, is threatened with famine before the maturity of next year's crops. The civil authorities of those States, aided in some cases by the United States military forces, and taking what measures they can to provide a supply of food, but it seems probable that these precautions will be inadequate to meet the wants of the people of the extended section of country threatened with destitution.

LYNCH LAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—The negroes who killed Mrs. Garvid and daughter, near Orangeburg, S. C., were hung on Saturday by the citizens. The freedmen of the vicinity were so incensed against the perpetrators of the outrage that they wanted to burn the murderers, but they were prevented by the whites.

DEATH OF BISHOP RUTLEDGE.—The Tallahassee, (Fla.) papers announce the death, in that city, of Bishop Rutledge, of the Episcopal diocese of Florida, after a long and painful illness of cancer of the mouth.

For the Sentinel.

Dr. G. C. Moore, of Hertford County.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—You and all true men of our noble State will be pleased to learn that Dr. Moore has been elected to the House of Commons by the people of Hertford County.

Years ago the Dr. was a member of the Legislature, and I do not hazard my veracity in saying that for a high chivalric sense of honor, purity of principle and exalted position, no man exceeds him in our State. His knowledge of parliamentary law, his readiness of perception, eminently qualify Dr. Moore for the Speakership of the House of Commons, and you could not render that body a better service than to urge members of the House to look to him in the choice of a presiding officer.

While I would not derogate from the claims of other gentleman for the Speaker's chair, yet from his mature age and experience, his knowledge of parliamentary law, I think that in commending Dr. Moore for the position, I am rendering the Legislature a simple act of justice.

S. J.

For the Sentinel.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Permit me, through the columns of the Sentinel, to call the attention of Senators elect to the approaching General Assembly, to the claims of Major Husted as Assistant Clerk of the Senate. The Major was defeated at the last Legislature simply because being too modest himself, to solicit votes, and his friends dreaming his election certain, no efforts were made in his behalf. With the exception of yourselves, no person, perhaps in North Carolina, has done more for the success of the conservative party than Major Husted, and hence, but few have higher claims upon that party. He has acted as Reading Clerk to the Senate heretofore, and proved a most excellent officer. While his modesty prevents him from again soliciting the position, yet I know it would be acceptable to him, and trust that the claims of one who has done so much for the conservative party will not be overlooked by conservative Senators in the approaching General Assembly.

JUSTICE.

Official Vote for Governor.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Secretary's Office,
Raleigh, November 15th, 1866.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have the pleasure of furnishing you with the official vote in the late Governor's election in this State. I will also state that the returns from every County have been strictly according to law.

Very Respectfully, your ob'dt serv't,
R. W. BEST,
Sec. of State.

As an instance of the hard times in Georgia, it is said by an exchange that a plantation in that State will yield a bale of cotton to the acre, under favorable circumstances, and which has always been valued at $25,000, is now offered for $6,000, but cannot find a purchaser.

Messrs. Hillyer and Lowry called upon the President, to-day, by appointment, having previously sent him the Mississippi resolutions in relation to Mr. Davis. They also presented an accompanying letter from Gov. Humphreys based on the idea that there will be no trial, but he says while they do not seek to screen him from this they believe that his imprisonment is not necessary to secure his presence when desired for the trial, and can only be attended with fatal results to his health, and that the ends of justice will be reached by admitting him to bail or parole. The President gave them a courteous reception, and promised to take the subject into consideration.

Jefferson Davis.

The New York Tribune of Friday last, devotes a column article to that distinguished prisoner of State, who for nearly eighteen months has been confined at Fortress Monroe. It refers to the fact that repeated attempts have been made by Mr. Davis' counsel to bring his case to trial, but that for some reason "the government does not appear to prosecute—the machinery of the courts is always out of order;" and that so many obstacles have been thrown in the way of a fair and impartial trial, "that now Congress, President and Chief Justice, are in a complete muddle on the subject; each seeming inclined to throw the responsibility for the delay on one or both of the others." The Tribune concludes its article as follows:

The upshot of all this is, that the prisoner is not tried, nor likely to be; and that, if tried, he is morally certain not to be convicted; if convicted, not to be punished. There are still many persons who would like to have him executed; but there is not one intelligent man on earth who has the faintest notion that he ever will be. For, though governments sometimes inflict capital punishment on conspicuous rebels, they never, at least in modern times, do so long after their rebellion was suppressed. Austria, in 1849, put to death thirteen of the Hungarian leaders betrayed into her hands by the miscreant Gorgey; but she tried them by drumhead court martial directly after their surrender, and had them all hanged and busied within forth-eight hours. Had she waited eighteen months, and then executed them, she would invoke the execrations of all Christendom.

Since it is notorious that Mr. Davis is not to be punished, why is he still kept awaiting a trial which he alone seems to desire, and which he can by no means obtain? What good end is subserved by persisting in a menace which still serves to irritate, though it no longer appalls?

Congress, at its last session, evidently felt that it had the President at disadvantage with regard to his prisoner—that he was an elephant which Mr. Johnson had too eagerly acquired, and was now unable either to keep or dispose of save to his own loss. In the state of feeling then prevalent, this aspect of the case was regarded by many with evident complacency. Had the President been a man of high courage, we think he would have bailed the prisoner and called Congress to demand, if that were deemed advisable, that he should be surrendered and tried, and to prescribe the legal conditions of such trial, since the laws, as they stand, seem inadequate or defective. But he should first, at all events, have publicly retracted the charge of complicity with the assassins of President Lincoln, since he has virtually abandoned it by not attempting to found an indictment thereon. It is neither just nor wise to send forth a prisoner of State with the brand of murder on his brow, and a naked failure to prosecute is but equivalent to the Scotch verdict "Not proven." If Mr. Davis is even probably guilty of complicity with Booth, he should long since have been indicted and tried for that crime; if he is not, he should, and have ere this been explicitly freed from the reproach, even though he were to be executed for treason on the morrow. A great government may deal sternly with offenders, but not meanly; it cannot afford to seem unwilling to repair an obvious wrong.

UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH.—The first college of this University, projected by the late Bishop Polk, was opened at Winchester, Tenn., week before last, by Bishop Quintard. The college has five professorships, four tutorships, and one hundred students.

Special Notices.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"Dr. Gardner's treatment of the eye and ear is wonderful."—Richmond Enquirer.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other expectorant is too patent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs that are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

We can only assure the public, that its quality is carefully kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do for their relief all that it has ever done.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent personages, have lent their names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of our remedies, but space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis our American Almanac in which they are given; with also full descriptions of the complaints they cure.

Those who require an alterative medicine to purify the blood will find AYER'S COMP. EXT. SARSAPARILLA the remedy to use. Try it once, and you will know its value.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. CRAIG.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARELSON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

June 1, 1866.
JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY.
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

IN addition to the less and prompt payment of Justus Kinseys policy for $5,000, is now added another loss, by the death of J. E. Weeks, of Elizabeth City, N. C. for $5,000, and again promptly settled by the Ætna.

By this practical illustration of the advantages of Life Insurance, it is commended to the confidence and support of every one desirous of providing for surviving loved ones.

As an investment merely, a Life Insurance Policy is as safe an investment of funds as can be made.—The principal, generally, is not only many times in excess of the amount paid, but in a sound company it has no rival for security, and no species of Government bonds are a more desirable investment.
